

Pacific Coast Polo League 2012

The Pacific Coast Arena League is back for 2012 and improved based on your feedback!

WHAT IS IT???

The Pacific Coast Polo League is a competition where polo players from different clubs have the opportunity to compete throughout the season for year end awards. Players do not need to participate in every tournament to be eligible.

LEVELS:

There will be 3 divisions/levels of competition, also an overall high point winner. The divisions are as follows:

- A Flight (1 to 3 goals)
- B Flight (-1 to 1)
- C Flight (-3 to - 1)

All participants must be USPA members. USPA Handicaps will apply

AWARDS:

- A Flight Champion and Reserve
- B Flight Champion and Reserve
- C Flight Champion and Reserve
- Overall High Point Winner
- Most Valuable Player
- Best Playing Pony
- Best Sportsmanship
- Overall Team Champion (new this year!)

ENTRY FEE:

$100/player/season – League entry fee will be used to pay for the awards and player's portion of the year end awards banquet (LA location new this year!). League fee does not include the individual club tournament fees.

SCHEDULE:

DATE	HOST CLUB	LOCATION
May 12	California Polo Club	Los Angeles
June 16	OC Polo	Coto de Caza
July 7	SDPC	Del Mar
July 8	Poway (at SDPC)	Del Mar
Aug 4	Bel Air Polo Club	Los Angeles
Sept 8	Central Coast	San Luis Obispo

